

1736

London was said to be the worst-lit Capital in Europe until 1736 when the Citz took over the task.

1736

Austria-Hungary

death of David Oppenheim

1736-1750

Genus-species plant name
Established 1736-1750, by Swedish botanist Carl Linnaeus
(1707-1778)

1736-1739

1912 Dates J-BK

Dermosay

Unsuccessful war with the Turks.

Peace of Belgrade 1739

1736

Russians invade Crimea and take AZOV.

29 MAY 1736
PATRICK HENRY
BORN

Jan 19, 1736

James Watt, inventor of the steam engine was born in Scotland.

May 26, 1736

Battle of Ackia

Chesasaw Indians allied with English, defeated French force led by Jean Baptiste le Moyne, Sieur de Bienville (Feb 23, 1680 - 1768) at Indian village of Ackia, La.

1736

His home having been burned in Londerry, Archibald Stork moved to Harsyton (later Manchester)
a short distance from Amoskeag Falls in the Merrimack River.

There several of his friends followed and the new settlement was called Derryfield

1736

Archibald Stark (The father of Gen.
John Stark) bought some 800 acres of land in 1736 from Samuel THAXTER of HINCHAM, who had received it as a grant for war service
It extended from just below the Amoskeag Falls nearly to the
(now) Hooksett line on the East Bank of the MERRIMACK River and Lakeview Park was originally called the Chester line (today would be called the Auburn line).

Archibald Stark built the Gen. John Stark house near the Falls (1736) to protect fishing rights for his townsmen against English settlers from Massachusetts.

First - this area was called Harrytown
1810 - name changed to Manchester
1846 - Manchester became a city

1736

Iren John Stock House

The lumber cut from nearby trees that must have been enormous. The paneling in the downstairs rooms is 20in wide and 12 feet by 14 feet long (a single board) with hardly a knot visible.

When the house was moved into, Archibald and Eleanor (his wife) with 7 children

- ① Anna b. June 10, 1722 m. William Gamble
- ② William b. April 1, 1724 m. Mary Stenson 2/22/1754.

- William died 1776 In service of British Army
- ③ Isabell b. 1726 m Hugh Skerting
  - ④ John (later son) b. Aug 28, 1728 (m Elizabeth Page 8/20/1758) died 5/8/1822.
  - ⑤ Archibald b. 1730 (m. Mary Anderson) died Jan 20, 1819 in Hopkinton
  - ⑥ Mary, m. Hugh Conroy
  - ⑦ Jean b. 1734 (m. James McCalley)
  - ⑧ Samuel b. 1736 (m Elizabeth Powers) died Mar. 16, 1809 in Conway, N.H.

1736

the Londonderry home of Archibald and Eleanor Stark burned (Parents of Gen. John Stark)

Their last child Samuel was born earlier in 1736

Now Archibald (John's father) acquires
the THAXTER grant in HARRINGTON (later called Derryfield and finally Manchester). There were 800 acres bordering on the east bank of the Merrimack River. He built the little red house by the Amoskeag Falls and the family moved in.

This was the ancient fishing place of the Abenaki Indians. (Salmon, shad, alewives and lamprey eels)

1736

1912 Dates J-BK

NADIR SHAH of Persia, drove out the Turks

1736

1812 Dates J-BK

Great Britain

Porteous riot in Edinburgh

Jan 19, 1736

James Watt, Inventor of the steam engine was born in Scotland.

1736

1912 Dates J-BK

(1703-1791) John WESLEY (Wesley)

Founder of the sect called Wesleyans or Methodists. Went with General Oglethorpe to Savannah Ga. in 1736 hoping to convert the Indians. Returned in 1738. His first hymn book was published at Charleston 1737. Spent 3 months with the Moravians in Germany.

(1738). Organized his religious system of Methodism.

1736

1912 Dates J-BK

Born NEUHOF of Westphalia took the title of King Theodore I of Cnseca.

1736

---

London street lighting taken over by the City authorities.